Sponsorship Opportunities

There's No Business Like Show Business!

Sponsorship of a Birdcage Theatre production is a visible demonstration of your commitment to the cultural and economic development of our community. Choosing to sponsor a show can complement your company's marketing and community involvement strategies and provide a unique opportunity for employee or client entertainment. We are deeply grateful for the support of our Show Sponsors and are glad to recognize their support in the following ways:

Publicity Benefits: Season Brochure: Your business name and/or logo will be included in our season brochure.

Other Advertising: Your logo will be featured on our show posters. Your logo will also be included on our website.

Play Programs: Your business logo or name will be printed on the front cover of your play's program. A complimentary half-page thank you advertisement will also be placed inside the program.

Curtain Speech: You will be thanked publicly for your support before every performance of your sponsored play.

Tickets: Reward yourself, clients or employees with complimentary tickets to the show you sponsor.
